Sat 7	One of today's Gospel readings – Luke 10: 17-24 – is the return of the 70 sent out by Jesus and his prayer of thanks and celebration in response. "Sent out" is a big word – "apostolic" is the word in Greek. It is far too easy to think that our job as Christians is to spend a lot of time doing "church" things, but that is the opposite of what Jesus tells us. Yes, we are to gather for worship, but then we are sent out to serve. The last words of the Eucharist – "Go in the peace of Christ" – are our mission. The Dioceses of Spokane and Springfield (Province VIII and Province III, The Episcopal Church)

Sat 25	Catherine of Alexandria, Martyr, 4th century Isaac Watts, Hymn Writer, 1748 Tomorrow is the Feast of Christ the King – a feast created in the 20th century originally to re-assert the church's power and authority. Today it has become a different and much more important day as it invites us to celebrate the Lordship of Christ over all creation – that he reigns as king even in the darkest places of our world and the darkest moments of human experience. The Dioceses of Virginia and West Virginia (Province III, The Episcopal Church)

Sat 18 Elizabeth of Hungary, Princess of Thuringia, Philanthropist, 1231
Elizabeth of Hungary was a princess who was married at 14 and widowed at 20. Inspired by the example of Francis of Assisi, she spent the remaining four years of her short life, and all her wealth, in the service of the poor and the vulnerable. In our increasingly divided country Elizabeth is an important example to us of practical caring for others.
