The Diocese of Chelmsford and your Will

The Diocese of Chelmsford exists to support Christian service to everyone in Essex and East London at their point of need.

The welcome, openness and influence of our churches and schools are helping to transform our villages, towns and suburbs into good neighbourhoods where people are proud of their Christian roots and look out for one another.

We work with the widest possible community to share the Christian good news that we have received and pass it on to the next generation.

We receive very little government support and depend almost entirely on voluntary donations.

We hope that whether you are a Christian or a friend, you will be interested in being part of this living tradition.

Please remember us in your Will when you talk to your Solicitor.

Thank you for your interest – we appreciate it.
