

APPENDIX I

Permitted Stone Types:

|                          | Name of stone            | Colour/description   | Origin                                   |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|--|--|
| Limestones        | Blue Lias                | Grey/blue with irregular shale pattern   | UK (Dorset/Somerset)                     |
|                          | Chilmark                 | Cream  | Wiltshire                                |
|                          | Hopton Wood              | Creamy grey  | UK (Derbyshire)                          |
|                          | Hornton                  | Light brown, brown-purple, grey, green running to various shades of mauve and blue | UK (Oxfordshire)                         |
|                          | Nabresina                | Creamy but with occasional light brown/orange patches (like coffee stains)         | Italy                                    |
|                          | Oathill Cotswold Cream   | Cream  | Gloucestershire                          |
|                          | Portland                 | Creamy/white   | UK (Portland)                            |
|                          | Purbeck Pond Freestone   | Creamy white   | UK (Dorset)                              |
|                          | Purbeck Thornback        | Cream to grey/buff/beige (with small shale pattern)                                | UK (Dorset)                              |
|                          | Sandstones        | Caithness Stone  | Grey slate-like with fine quartz sparkle |
| Dukes                    |                          | Dark and light pink/buff veining   | UK                                       |
| Forest of Dean           |                          | Cream (similar to Yorkstone)   | UK                                       |
| Peakmoor                 |                          | Buff/yellow/pink occasional iron intrusions  | UK                                       |
| Scotch Buff              |                          | Cream with slight brown speckling  | UK                                       |
| Stoneraise Red           |                          | Salmon pink with quartz sparkle  | UK                                       |
| Wattsccliffe Lilac       |                          | Lilac/grey   | UK                                       |
| West stone               |                          | Light grey/green/buff  | UK                                       |
| Yorkstone                |                          | Cream to bluish grey   | UK (Yorkshire)                           |
| Other stone types | Slate (metamorphic rock) | Dark grey, grey/plum and grey/green  | UK (Wales, Cumbria, Cornwall)            |