DIOCESAN SYNOD MEMBERS' HANDBOOK

Part I: Synod Constitution & Standing Orders

2018 Edition

The Church of England in Essex and East London
Diocese of Chelmsford

INTRODUCTION

This Handbook contains the Constitution and current Standing Orders of the Chelmsford Diocesan Synod. We hope that new members of the Synod, in particular, will find its contents help them to play an active part in the Synod's meetings. In addition to the Standing Orders, the following points may also prove useful. An accompanying 'Part 2' handbook contains the terms of reference for various committees.

TRAVELLING AND PARKING

The Synod normally meets in Chelmsford Cathedral or, on occasion, elsewhere in the Diocese. Directions for travelling and parking will be included with the Agenda for each meeting.

BADGES

Members are requested to wear their name badge during the meeting.

SPEECHES

Members are asked to give their name and deanery before they address the Synod. Speeches are limited to five minutes or such other time as the Chair shall direct (Standing Order 43). Thirty seconds before the time limit expires a bell is rung as a warning to the speaker. A bell is rung again at the completion of the time limit.

AMENDMENTS

Under Standing Order 29, seven days notice of amendments to motions on the Agenda is required.

DISTRIBUTION OF PAPERS

Agenda and papers for meetings of Synod are sent by email to members who have provided an email address. Any member who requests a hard copy circulation will receive paper copies in the post, as will members who do not have email addresses. The agenda and papers are also published on the Diocesan website – <http://www.chelmsford.anglican.org/committees/diocesan-synod>

FILMING

In order to assist with the communication of Synod business across the Diocese, items of business are sometimes recorded. Typically this will be limited to the Presidential Address and major items of business. The day paper will indicate when filming is due to take place at each meeting. If you have a concern about this please contact the Pastoral Secretary – nwhitehead@chelmsford.anglican.org

The Chair shall call a member to order for failure to address the Chair, irrelevance, tedious repetition of arguments previously put forward by the same or any other member, unbecoming language, reading a speech without permission of the Chair, disregard of the authority of the Chair, or any other breach of order and may order the member to end any speech which they may be making.

Such permission shall be given only if any person interrupted consents and if in the opinion of the Chair, the debate is likely to benefit from such explanation.

Interruptions Otherwise not Permitted

39. Save as provided in Standing Orders 37 and 38 the interruption of a speech (by question, point of information or otherwise) shall not be permitted, but where it occurs in breach of this Standing Order, it shall be reckoned as a speech on the question before the Synod and shall preclude the interrupter from speaking further on that question. - ii) a motion for next business shall take precedence over all amendments of which notice has been given;

Adjournment of Debate

59. Standing Order 58 shall, unless the context otherwise requires, apply also to this motion except that :

- i) if a motion to adjourn the debate is carried and the Synod has not by the same or a later resolution appointed a time for resuming the interrupted debate, it shall be resumed only by direction of the Bishop's Council;
- ii) if the question adjourned is an amendment, the debate on the main motion shall also stand adjourned.

Closure

60. The following rules of debate shall apply :

- i) if a motion for closure is permitted by the Chair, it shall be put forthwith without discussion;
- ii) if the closure is carried, the member, if any, who has a right of reply on a motion superseded by the closure, shall be given an opportunity to speak for not more than five minutes in reply and the motion or amendment shall be put without further debate.

Speech Limit

- i) if a motion to limit the length of all further speeches on this question is permitted by the Chair, it shall be put forward without discussion;
- ii) notwithstanding the time limits imposed by Standing Order 43, on this motion being carried no speech shall exceed the number of minutes specified therein, but the Chair may, for any special reason of which he or she shall be the sole judge, allow a longer or shorter time to any member provided that when so doing the Chair shall inform members of that ruling and in exercising that discretion shall have particular regard to any member who has the right of reply to the debate.

Suspension of Standing Orders

Procedure for Decisions

64. Questions relating only to the conduct of business shall be decided by the votes of all the members of the Diocesan Synod present and voting and every question shall be decided in like manner, the assent of the three Houses being presumed, unless the President (if present) requires, or any ten members require, that a separate vote of each House be taken.

Matters Referred under Article 8
