Sat 4	Gilbert of Sempringham, Founder of the Gilbertine Order, 1189  Gilbert of Sempringham, in the calendar today, was what we would call a “pioneer minister”. He lived 800 years ago and felt that the church in England needed some fresh expressions – so being a practical person, he started one. At a time when even in parish churches there was strict segregation by gender, Gilbert founded a monastic community in Lincolnshire for both men and women. He was the only Englishman in history until the 19th century to found a religious order, and his “new monastic” community thrived, founding over 20 missions. The Diocese of Lokoja (Lokoja, Nigeria)

Sat 25	THE ANNUNCIATION OF OUR LORD TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY  Today is a very special day – the visit of the angel to Mary, and the first “date” to make it into the Christian calendar. The early Christians chose this date for very special reasons: 25 March is our calendar’s version of the date for the Jewish Passover, the celebration of release from captivity in Egypt to freedom in the promised land – therefore also the day Jesus died. So when Christians began to reflect on the birth of Jesus they chose the same date, this day of new beginnings, for his conception. Which is why we celebrate Christmas on 25 December – because of the date of Easter! Our Link Diocese of Meru (Kenya),  The Rt Revd Charles Mwendwa (Bishop)

Sat 11	EMBER DAY  Mark 8: 1-10: today’s Gospel is the feeding of the 4,000. Mark has already recounted the feeding of the 5,000 in Chapter 6. It is a hugely important miracle – and the only one found in all four Gospels. The evangelists want us to know about the character of the God we meet in Jesus: he is a God who feeds hungry people in desert places; he is a God of compassion and love; above all he is a God of extraordinary abundance whose grace is like having seven baskets full of crumbs left over. The Diocese of Lui (Central, Sudan)

Sat 18	Today's reading is Mark's account of the Transfiguration of Jesus (Mark 9: 2-13). We will be reading Matthew's account a week on Sunday, just before Lent begins. And that is the point: Jesus is transfigured and seen in glory by his three closest disciples as a sign and a promise. He has begun to tell his disciples that following him means giving up everything, and that he himself faces suffering and death. But here, bang in the middle of the Gospel, he discloses divine glory, a promise. They do not understand, of course, and we find it hard to grasp, but it points forward to the glory of Christ's atoning sacrifice for the sins of the whole world (1 Jn 2.2). The Diocese of Madi &amp; West Nile (Uganda)

Sat 18	Cyril, Bishop of Jerusalem, Teacher of the Faith, 386 Cyril was a Palestinian church leader in the 4 th century. He was a great theologian and his teaching course for new Christians is still read today. He also encouraged Christians to live all the time in expectation of Christ's second coming. But perhaps the most interesting thing about his life – and the thing that makes him really worth celebrating – is that he was deposed as bishop because he had sold church property in order to help the poor and feed the starving. As a Christian, that's something worth being sacked for. The Diocese of Mbaise (Nigeria)

Sat 11	The Sermon on the Mount is the first part of Jesus' training for disciples. In today's passage (Matthew 5.43-end) he is giving them (and therefore us) the simplest and most challenging of teachings: "Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven". Like the rest of Jesus' teaching, these are not optional extras but essential parts of what it means to follow Jesus – and something our world really needs from us today. The Diocese of Masindi-Kitara (Uganda)
Sun 12	THE SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT Thank God for the diocesan links with other parts of the world. Pray for understanding and love between all people of faith. The Dioceses of Maseno South and Maseno West (Kenya)

Sat 25	Today's Gospel (Mark 10: 13-16) gives us a remarkable picture of the welcome Jesus offers to all. People are bringing children to Jesus, but the disciples rebuke them and seek to stop them. They are doing exactly what they think is right, protecting the dignity of their teacher. Jesus is furious and uses very strong language to the disciples, even saying "whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it." It is a good text for us to think about – who do we exclude from our fellowship because we are trying to protect Jesus, rather than seeking to share his gifts? The Diocese of Malakal (Upper Nile, Sudan)
Sun 26	THE SUNDAY NEXT BEFORE LENT Church Action on Poverty Sunday Please pray for people who experience poverty and those who make decisions that affect the lives of those in our poorest communities. Lord Jesus Christ, you became poor so that we might receive the riches of eternal life. Kindle in our hearts a flame of love for our neighbour that will give light to our whole community. The Diocese of Malek (Upper Nile, Sudan)

Sat 4	Lent proper begins tomorrow – different calculations of the 40 days mean a few days were added on at the beginning in the western tradition (therefore Ash Wednesday), and different again in the eastern tradition, where Lent begins on “Clean Monday”. The heart of this season is really clear: the disciplines of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Of course these are things Christians are called to do as part and parcel of being a follower of Jesus, but Lent is an invitation to renew our practice.  The Diocese of Mara (Tanzania)
