In today's first reading (1 Kings 3.4-13) Solomon asks for understanding and discernment. The phrase "the Wisdom of Solomon" has become a proverb in many cultures even today. But the sting in the tail is, of course, that although God grants him "a wise and discerning mind" Solomon still goes off the rails, makes bad choices and brings glory and disaster to Israel in equal measure. The Bible in its narratives gives great advice about the use and abuse of power. Today's reading is a real invitation to pray for our leaders, political and ecclesiastical, and ask that they persevere in wisdom and discernment despite the great temptations to be co-opted by power.

The Diocese of Armidale (New South Wales, Australia).

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. PRAY for The Anglican Church of Burundi, The Most Revd Martin Nyaboho, Archbishop.

Sat 31	EASTER EVE/HOLY SATURDAY "This is the night!" goes one of the great ancient songs sung on Easter Eve. Today we move from the cross to glory. We "pass over" with Christ from death to life, from slavery to freedom. That's why Easter Eve and Easter Day are often days when churches celebrate baptism and indeed invite whole congregations to renew their own baptismal commitments and to walk more closely with the risen Christ day by day. The Dioceses of Bunyoro-Kirara and Busoga (Uganda).

Sat 24	Walter Hilton of Thurgarton, Augustinian Canon, Mystic, 1396 Paul Couturier, Priest, Ecumenist, 1953 Oscar Romero, Archbishop of San Salvador, Martyr, 1980 Walter Hilton is one of the great Christian writers of the English tradition. He lived in the East Midlands in the 14th century, but his teaching is still fresh today. His greatest book is the Mirror of Perfection and the simplicity and directness of his teaching is well caught in these quotes: "When you attack the roots of sin, fix your thought more on the God you desire than on the sin you abhor." And "I desire the love of God not because I am worthy, but because I am unworthy." The Diocese of Byjumbura (Burundi).
Sun 25	PALM SUNDAY Jesus, you rode into your city in triumph of this day, receiving the shouts and welcome of many. Come into our Churches today. Receive our welcomes and our acclaim. Sat 10	Scholastica, sister of Benedict, Abbess of Plombariola, c.543 One of today's readings - Mark 8.1-10 – tells us about Jesus feeding 4,000 with only seven loaves. Again and again the parables and miracles of Jesus tell us about the abundance of God's generosity. Whether we deserve it or not, God loves us completely and will never give up on us. God's love for us is like water in a dry desert, like gallons of wine at a wedding. The Diocese of Atlanta (Province IV, The Episcopal Church).

Sat 17	Janani Luwum, Archbishop of Uganda, Martyr, 1977 The journey of Lent has now begun! Lent is marked by fasting, almsgiving and prayer but all these mark a glorious journey to Easter. Lent is certainly a time to take our spiritual disciplines seriously, and to renew them if they have slipped a bit. Lent is not so much about beating ourselves up as simply opening ourselves up to God and allowing God to get to grips with the rough stuff of our humanity. And although that may mean taking a hard look at ourselves, that is precisely the way we embrace the abundant life that Christ offers to all. The Diocese of Badagry (Lagos, Nigeria).
<hr/>
Sun 18	THE FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT Please pray for the success of the Bishop’s Lent Appeal this year, that people may be moved to give generously. PRAY for The Church of the Province of Central Africa, The Most Revd Albert Chama, Archbishop.

Sat 17	Patrick, Bishop, Missionary, Patron of Ireland, c. 460 Tomorrow Lent changes pace – in the readings and the prayers we begin to focus more closely on the cross. A great discipline for the coming two weeks is to spend some time simply reading the different accounts of Jesus; death. You will find them at Matthew 26:30–27:66, Mark 14:26–15:47, Luke 22:39–23:56, and John 18:1–19:42. You will see that Matthew and Mark are very close in tone; that Luke gives a striking portrait of Jesus still healing as he dies; and John shows us Jesus going to his crucifixion not as a convict going to his death but as a king going to his coronation. The Diocese of Brasilia (Brazil).
<hr/>
Sun 18	THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT (PASSIONTIDE BEGINS) Father, help us to be like Christ your Son, who loved the world and died for our salvation. Sat 10	Tomorrow is Mothering Sunday, also known as Refreshment Sunday. Although this has become a big retail opportunity for card shops and flower stalls, the theme of “Mother’s Day” (with the apostrophe before the “s”) is an entirely secular 20th century creation – celebrated in all other countries in May, but in the UK has become elided with Mothering Sunday. Some regard that as a great shame, but the church should greet this as an opportunity – because the Bible means something universal when it talks about mothering, even speaking of God as mother. The Diocese of Boga (Congo).
Sun 11	THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT (MOTHERING SUNDAY) Pray for mothers everywhere, give thanks for their love and devotion, and pray, too, for the work of the Mothers’ Union and the Women’s Institute and all who work untiringly to maintain the values of the home and family life. PRAY for The Church of England, The Most Revd and Rt Hon. Today the LORD has obtained your agreement: to be his treasured people, as he promised you, and to keep his commandments; for him to set you high above all nations that he has made, in praise and in fame and in honour; and for you to be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he promised. Sat 3	Costly grace is the gospel which must be sought again and again and again, the gift which must be asked for, the door at which a man must knock. Such grace is costly because it calls us to follow, and it is grace because it calls us to follow Jesus Christ. It is costly because it costs a man his life, and it is grace because it gives a man the only true life. It is costly because it condemns sin, and grace because it justifies the sinner. Above all, it is costly because it cost God the life of his Son: 'Ye were bought at a price', and what has cost God much cannot be cheap for us. Above all, it is grace because God did not reckon his Son too dear a price to pay for our life, but delivered him up for us. Costly grace is the Incarnation of God." - Dietrich Bonhoeffer. The Diocese of Benin (Bendel, Nigeria).

Sun 4	THE THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT Pray that we will daily continue to look and listen for God in our lives during this holy season of Lent. PRAY for Province de L'Eglise Anglicane du Congo, The Most Revd Zacharie Masimango Katanda, Archbishop.
