Sat 7	“The resurrection does not solve our problems about dying and death. It is not the happy ending to our life’s struggle, nor is it the big surprise that God has kept in store for us. No, the resurrection is the expression of God’s faithfulness.... The resurrection is God’s way of revealing to us that nothing that belongs to God will ever go to waste. What belongs to God will never get lost.” Henri Nouwen The Diocese of Calcutta (North India)
<hr/>

Sat 26	Augustine, first Archbishop of Canterbury, 605 John Calvin, Reformer, 1564 Philip Neri, Founder of the Oratorians, Spiritual Guide, 1595 Augustine was the first Archbishop of Canterbury. He was a very reluctant pioneer who felt pretty unqualified for the job that he was asked to do by Gregory the Great. Go to Britain? It must have sounded like a nightmare mission. The country had been laid waste after the Romans left and was in a bad state. Even after they had set out from Rome the team he led sent him back to beg Gregory not to send them. But Gregory insisted, and finally, reluctantly he made it to Britain and established his mission centre at Canterbury. Augustine is a huge encouragement to reluctant missionaries today – in answering God’s call, he established a mission of the Church that is now the springboard of mission centres across the world. The Diocese of Curitiba (Brazil)

Sat 14	“Many voices ask for our attention. There is a voice that says, 'Prove that you are a good person.' Another voice says, 'You'd better be ashamed of yourself.' There also is a voice that says, 'Nobody really cares about you,' and one that says, 'Be sure to become successful, popular, and powerful.' But underneath all these often very noisy voices is a still, small voice that says, 'You are my Beloved, my favour rests on you.' That's the voice we need most of all to hear. To hear that voice, however, requires special effort; it requires solitude, silence, and a strong determination to listen. That's what prayer is. It is listening to the voice that calls us 'my Beloved'.” Henri Nouwen The Diocese of Cape Coast (Ghana, West Africa)
<hr/>

Sat 21	Anselm, Abbot of Le Bec, Archbishop of Canterbury, 1109 Anselm was an Italian who became a monk in France and was then appointed Archbishop of Canterbury! He was famous as a philosopher and theologian but some of his writing is lyrical and poetic. The following beautiful text is included in Common Worship Daily Prayer: Jesus, like a mother you gather your people to you; you are gentle with us as a mother with her children. Often you weep over our sins and our pride, tenderly you draw us from hatred and judgement.... Lord Jesus, in your mercy heal us; in your love and tenderness remake us. In your compassion bring grace and forgiveness, for the beauty of heaven may your love prepare us. The Diocese of Central Ecuador (Province XI, The Episcopal Church)
Sun 22	THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER Today is Vocations Sunday. We give thanks to God that he calls us all to varieties of forms of service in his Church and in the world and pray for openness to his Holy Spirit, that each of us may discern the call of God upon our lives. "Christ, you call us to be your people in the world. We will follow your call to be our people: our hands will do your work, our feet will walk your way. Christ, you call us. Help us respond to your call." PRAY for The Nippon Sei Ko Kai (The Anglican Communion in Japan).

Sat 19	Dunstan, Archbishop of Canterbury, Monastic Reformer, 988 Dunstan was a great reforming Archbishop of Canterbury. He was a person who got involved in music, monastic reform, all sorts of things. But very beautifully in the context of a busy life, holding lots of balls in the air, he found time to do metal work as a craft hobby! It's a fantastic reminder to often over-busy Christians. We are not called to exhaust ourselves but to offer the whole of our lives as disciples. And relaxing doing metal work is just as important as leading the Church. The Diocese of Cork; Cloyne & Ross (Dublin, Ireland)
Sun 20	PENTECOST Come, O Spirit of God, and make within us your dwelling place and home. May our darkness be dispelled by your light, and our troubles calmed by your peace; may all evils be redeemed by your love, all pain transformed through the suffering of Christ, and all dying glorified by his risen life. Amen. (A Prayer Book for Australia) PRAY for the Diocese of Colorado (Province VI, The Episcopal Church)
Mon 21	Helena, Protector of the Holy Places, 330 The Deanery of Brentwood Area Dean: Paul Hamilton. Lay Chair: Paul Betts. Chaplain: Adrian McConaughie, Brentwood School. The Diocese of Costa Rica (Central America)

Sat 12 Gregory Dix, Priest, Monk, Scholar, 1952
Gregory Dix is little known today, though his great book “The Shape of the Liturgy” is still in print some 70 years later. Dix was an Anglican monk who was passionate about people understanding the “why”, “what” and “how” of worship. His beautiful, often very funny and often deeply moving writing helps people understand the extraordinary richness of sacramental worship and invites us all to join in.

In today’s Gospel reading - John 14:7–12 – Jesus speaks profoundly of his oneness with the Father: “Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on My own initiative, but the Father abiding in Me does His works.” Jesus’ relationship with the Father is unique but as his adopted sons and daughters we too are invited to respond in love and faithfulness.

Sat 5	“It’s a gift to joyfully recognize and accept our own smallness and ordinariness. Then you are free with nothing to live up to, nothing to prove, and nothing to protect. Such freedom is my best description of Christian maturity, because once you know that your “I” is great and one with God, you can ironically be quite content with a small and ordinary “I.” No grandstanding is necessary. Any question of your own importance or dignity has already been resolved once and for all and forever.” Richard Rohr The Diocese of Chattisgarh (North India)

Sun 6	THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER Pray with the thousands of people across the world who will be praying during Thy Kingdom Come (10-20 May) : Almighty God, your ascended Son has sent us into the world to preach the good news of your kingdom: inspire us with your Spirit and fill our hearts with the fire of your love, that all who hear your Word may be drawn to you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. PRAY for the Anglican Church of Kenya.
