TRANSFORMING PRESENCE

What does it mean to me?

LENT LECTURES 2016

LENT 2016

Lent is a time when it is good for Christian people to re-set the compass of their discipleship so as to be ready to celebrate the Easter feast.

One of the things to come out of the Time to Talk discussions in April 2015 was a desire for more teaching about prayer and discipleship.

In Lent 2016 the bishops of the diocese, with help from one or two other members of the Bishop's Staff and Cathedral team, will present four Lectures on the four themes of Transforming Presence, the strategic priorities for the Diocese of Chelmsford.

This will happen on the first four Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays of Lent in three venues across the diocese.

All are welcome. The Lectures are free of charge.
