8 Finsbury Circus
London
EC2M 7AZ

Email: energyredress@est.org.uk

Website:

<https://energyredress.org.uk/about-us>

Grant potential: £20,000+

Interests: Funds can support the development of innovative products and services related to energy.

Innovation projects must:

- Have a realistic prospect of delivering benefits to existing and/or future energy consumers;
- Should help to reduce the environmental impact of energy use; and
- Are efficiently managed and provide good value for money.

The minimum grant that can be requested is £20,000 and the maximum grant amount varies depending on the size of the fund available. The scheme can fund projects lasting up to two years, can fund 100 per cent of the project cost and can cover revenue and capital measures.

How to Apply: Applications are reviewed on a quarterly basis in October, January, April and July. Eligible charities that have registered interest in the scheme will be notified when funds become available. Applications are made through an online system and closing dates for applications will be determined each quarter.

Email: grants@ernestcooktrust.org.uk

Website:

www.ernestcooktrust.co.uk/grants

Interests: All grants awarded from 2020 will be for environmental education projects, outdoor learning and 'learning from the land'. The Trustees would like to see applicants addressing key global concerns through educational projects which focus on issues such as (but not exclusive to):

connecting with nature
climate change environmental pollution
loss of biodiversity

Grant potential: Outdoor Learning Officers, Apprenticeships and Scholarships up to £15,000

farming and food production renewable energy mental and physical wellbeing
social justice

Whilst some of our grant streams have a more youth focus, our Trustees believe there should be no barrier to engaging with the environment and therefore family and community projects are most welcome. We also believe in inclusivity with regards to gender, race, religion or ability. Applications from urban and rural deprived areas and those including disadvantaged members of society will have merit. More grant streams in 2020.

How to Apply: Current application round is closed. Check website for updates.

Exclusions: Faith organisations may apply if there is a clear benefit to the local community and not just to those of a particular faith

Grant potential:

Range from £6,000 to £1.25m.

Interests: The Foundation is one of the largest UK independent grant-making foundations and aims to improve the quality of life throughout the UK.

Three relevant streams within environmental funding programme are:

Connecting people with nature and environment issues - projects that excite and inspire people to get involved in nature or environmental issues and take action to make a difference, or make environmental issues relevant to people's everyday lives and what they care about, or enables groups that may be disconnected from nature, for example in urban areas, to become more engaged.

Countering the effects of damaging activity - projects that expose and tackle harmful practice at all levels – from local communities to UK-wide, and use a ground-breaking, creative approach to make an impact on environment issues such as: transport, chemicals, pollution, climate change, littering, plastics, freshwater, overfishing, soil health and energy.

Nature conservation on land and at sea - projects that take place at a "landscape scale" which recognises and supports the interdependence of the natural world, or bold and ambitious thinking which results in new collaborations between communities, landholders, voluntary sector organisations, and statutory bodies, or marine projects which work alongside coastal communities and restore people's connection to the sea.

How to Apply: Information is available via their website. There is a two-stage application process and the first stage is online. There are no deadlines.

Exclusions: Do not fund building or equipment costs. Do not fund promotion of religion. Do not fund energy efficiency or waste reduction schemes such as recycling or renewable energy schemes unless they have exceptional social benefits. Charities with less than £50,000 in annual income.

Other Sources of Funding

For environmental and sustainability projects it is also worth considering other sources of funding including:

Local Community Funding

- UK Community Foundations are networks of local funders. Visit <https://www.ukcommunityfoundations.org/> for Information about funders local to your project.

Social Investment

- Leapfrog enable positive social, environmental and financial impact for communities, those in deprivation by enabling their participation in and benefit from, an energy system in transition to lower carbon intensity. They provide affordable finance to community projects that deliver genuine social and environmental benefits locally. <https://www.pureleapfrog.org/>
- CO2Sense has specialised in financing renewable energy projects, supporting over 8MW of new renewable energy capacity to be developed and installed by commercial and community organisations. Building on this experience, CO2Sense has broadened its remit to invest in the wider environmental sector including energy efficiency, energy storage and waste and recycling. <http://www.co2sense.co.uk/>

Funding Networks

Networks of funders and Individuals Interested In funding projects. These groups do not accept unsolicited applications but will accept approaches made to members, who then share with the wider network If appropriate.

- Environmental Funders Network - <https://www.greenfunders.org/>
- Network for Social Change - <https://www.thenetworkforsocialchange.org.uk/>
- The Funding Network - <https://www.thefundingnetwork.org.uk/>

Diocesan Funding and Loans

Local Solar Providers

Community Owned Renewable Energy LLP (CORE) is a £40 million investment partnership between Power to Change and Big Society Capital seeking to acquire operational, ground mounted solar farms in England on behalf of community energy groups with a view to transferring them into community ownership whilst maximising their financial, environmental and social impact.

Landfill Communities Fund

Since the introduction of the Landfill Tax in 1996, a tax credit scheme called the Landfill Communities Fund (LCF) has existed to encourage landfill operators to work in partnership with environmental bodies to improve communities and the environment. Most of this funding is only available within a certain geographical radius of a particular company's site. Listed are the remaining organisations, which distribute their funds.

In most cases, the LCF are focused on the community and environmental benefit of a project. Where a church building is an accessible space available to the whole community, the enhancement of its use, or the conservation of its fabric may well fall within the grant criteria of the schemes.

The national regulator for the LCF is ENTRUST. For more information please visit their website <http://www.entrust.org.uk/>

Heritage Fund (HF), formerly the Heritage Lottery Fund have introduced the Heritage Enterprise Grant for projects that are focusing on:

Bringing a neglected historic building back in to a financially viable use; Responding to local economic and social needs. The case for grant funding will depend on the conservation deficit. This is where the existing value of a heritage asset plus the cost of bringing it back into use is greater than the value of the asset after development.
