National Parliamentary Prayer Breakfast 2025

It is my pleasure to invite you to the 2025 National Parliamentary Prayer Breakfast. It will take place on Tuesday 24 June from 7:30am to 9:00am in Westminster Hall in the Houses of Parliament. The aims of the event are to pray for our parliament, government and politics, to build relationships between church leaders and parliamentarians and to reflect upon the relevance of the Christian faith to our public life. The Breakfast is normally attended by The Speaker and Lord Speaker, The Prime Minister, The Leader of the Opposition, leaders of the political parties, MPs, Peers and church leaders from all over the United Kingdom.

Our theme this year is 'God in the public square?' and our main speaker is John Lennox, Emeritus Professor of Mathematics at Oxford University. John is a globally renowned author and lecturer on the relationship between science, philosophy and religion. Music and singing will be led by the acclaimed hymn writers and GRAMMY nominated artists, Keith and Kristyn Getty. After the main breakfast, there will be a programme of seminars as well as a dedicated event for church leaders later in the morning. Please see below for more information.

A central aim of the event is for MPs and church leaders to attend together. Please invite your local MP to attend with you. We recommend inviting them by email and telephone. An example email invitation can be found here: tinyurl.com/CHL25MP. Due to high demand, we regret that at this stage, you can only buy a ticket if your MP confirms that they can attend. If you are awaiting a response, please follow the link below to be added to the waiting list and we will follow up with the MP. If your MP cannot attend, please join the waiting list.

If financial cost would prevent you from coming, please contact us directly. We have some bursaries to cover ticket price and accommodation in central London.

Booking:

Thanks to donations, we are delighted to offer half price tickets of £25 for church leaders. Please enter the following URL to book a ticket or to join the waiting list: tinyurl.com/NPPBCHL25. Tickets are non-transferable. If the person on this email is no longer the church leader, please pass this invitation to the new church leader and update us via the contact details below.

Please visit christiansinparliament.org.uk/prayer-breakfast/2025-programme/ for further information on the programme. Please note that seminar places will be allocated on a first come, first served basis.

For further assistance please call 01793 418222 or email npb@biblesociety.org.uk

We very much hope you can join us.

Bible Society Event

11:00-12:30pm (with refreshments from 10:30am) – Why Bible confidence is the key to mission
Conference Hall, Mothers' Union, Mary Sumner House, 24 Tufton Street, London, SW1P 3RB

Bible Confidence is a key element in deeper discipleship and effective mission. But what exactly is it, and how can we help Christians who struggle with it? This Bible Society seminar unpacks the thinking behind the concept of Bible Confidence, drawing on insights into contemporary culture and rigorous research. We'll show how growing Bible Confidence in Christians not only enriches the spiritual life of believers but leads to more effective mission and cultural impact. Join the Bible Society team and special guests for talks, panel discussions and the latest resources to help your church deepen their Bible Confidence for mission.
